We, the Class of 1958, wishing to express our gratitude, dedicate this annual to Mr. Dale Flick. Through his kindness, patience, and understanding, we have enjoyed four years of high school.

We also wish to thank our parents and teachers for the faith they have had in us. We will treasure dearly the memories they have given us.

Last Will and Testament

As a tradition we the seniors of '58' hereby leave our last will and testament to those honorable students who in the near future may hold our positions.

To the teachers, we will our old tests with all the A's on them.

To the sophomores, we will our co-operation with each other in putting out the yearbook.

To the freshmen, we will the school teachers.

We, the senior girls will the senior boys to the junior girls.

We, the senior boys, will the senior girls to the junior boys.

We, three senior girls, Joyce, Janice, Sharron, will to Karen, Diana, and Janet the job of cleaning the trophy case. Keep it cleaner than we did, girls!

PROPHECY

It is now the year of 1978. Mr. Flick turns on his photovision and then sees what has become of the very ambitious class of 1958.

Alvin Confer who worked at Kroger's
Is now a very wealthy broker.
He sells stocks from dawn to dusk,
To support his family is now a must!

To be an accountant was George's ambition
And he paid some very high tuition.
He slaves hard the whole day long
He, his wife, and family live in Hong Kong!

Jim Glancy sells tomatoes
And fine sweet potatoes.
Very wealthy and free
A happy bachelor is he!

Next in line is Sharron Glancy
Who has found her might Clancy. (Jim R.)
It's still that same story of old
For now she's wearing a band of gold!

Predictions come and predictions go
Many came true and many, oh, no!
But Joe Heflin so quiet and shy
We see a young girl has met his eye!

Joyce Helm, the lively one,
Gay and laughing, full of fun.
To cheer Louie was her aim
And now today their names are the same!

Doyle Luttrell, the office boy
Always friendly, full of joy!
Now he's working very hard
To support his family by mowing yards!

Dianna Morgan, a real small gal
Janice thought she was quite a pal.
The future was very bright for her
For now she's wearing mink stoles and fur!

Dean Nessell, tall and dark,
Was always as happy as a lark.
Now he's married and an engineer!
With 16 kids and 8 tiny reindeer! (Total 24)

Next in line, a real bright guy,
He was never very shy.
Now the President of Purdue
Tyrone Payne, we're proud of you.

Ronald Rice always slow
Never thought he'd make much dough.
A Republican candidate was he
Running for sheriff of old Dundee.

Ronnie Said, tall and thin,
Had a smile that would always win.
It seems his future was very bright
He rocks his kids all through the night!

Janice Schwartzkopf, once a fair young maiden,
Is now with gray hair and wrinkles laden.
She's very handy with both pot and pan,
To please her five children and faithful man.

Arlene Sharp, a fine girl was she,
Declared a farmer's wife she'd never be.
It seems her declaration came true,
Now she's married to Jerry and the mother of two.

Julia Shrader, was an efficient lass,
She was the top of her class,
She finished her schooling at Ball State,
And chose Tom Dick for a life time mate.

Dan Smith always quiet,
Saw a farm and thought he'd buy it!
He is now a successful farmer,
And married a girl who was quite a charmer!

Last but not least is Lewis Willmann
He and Joyce live in Dillmann.
Lewis joined the Marines you see,
And now they are the proud parents of three!
